INTRODUCTION

The following rules ("Rules") made pursuant to the Condominium Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, c. 19, and the regulations made thereunder, as amended, shall be observed by all present and future Owners and any other persons occupying the unit, including, without limitation, family members, household members, Residents, tenants, and by all guests, invitees, licensees and employees.

A. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1. "Act" means the Condominium Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, c.19 and all regulations thereunder and any amendments to said Act and regulations and any successor legislation;
2. "Board of Directors" or "Board" means the board of directors of the Corporation;
3. "Owner" means "owner" as defined in the Act;
4. "Property Manager" or "Property Management" or "Manager" or "Management" means the individual or company appointed by the Corporation to manage the property and assets of the Corporation, or any agent or employee thereof;
5. "Recreational Facilities" means the Multi-Purpose Room, the Games Room, the Theatre Room and the Media Room.
6. "Resident" means anyone who is a resident in any residential unit in the Corporation, for any length of time, and includes, but is not limited to, an Owner residing in a unit, temporary guests or anyone who is permitted to reside in a residential unit for any period of time by the Owner or tenant of the unit;

Unless otherwise specified, the terms used herein shall have ascribed the definitions contained in the Act.

These Rules shall be read with all changes in gender and number required by the context. The headings in these Rules form no part of the Rules and have been inserted for convenience of reference only.

B. GENERAL

1. Use of the common elements and units shall be subject to these Rules and any additional rules which the Board may make from time to time to promote the safety, security and welfare of the Owners, and of the property and assets of the Corporation or for the purpose of preventing unreasonable interference with the use and enjoyment of the common elements, units and assets of the Corporation.
2. Each Owner and Resident of the Corporation shall be responsible for the acts and/or omissions of their respective family members, tenants, guests, invitees, licencees, customers, employees and agents.
3. Any losses, costs or damages incurred by the Corporation (including, without limitation, legal costs) by reason of a breach of the Act, or the Declaration, By-laws and Rules or by reason of any litigation against the Corporation without obtaining a judgment against the Corporation, by any Owner and/or Resident, or by the respective family members, tenants, guests, invitees, employees or agents of the Owner and/or Resident or any of the foregoing shall be borne and paid for by such Owner of the unit and shall be deemed to be additional contributions towards the common expenses payable by such Owner and shall be recoverable as such.
4. No one shall do or permit anything to be done in a unit, or bring or keep anything therein which will in any way increase the risk of fire or the insurance premiums on the building, or on property kept therein, and no one shall do or permit anything to be done in a unit or obstruct or interfere with the rights of other Owners and/or Residents, or in any way injure or annoy them, or conflict with the regulations of the applicable municipal fire department, or with any insurance policy carried by the Corporation or conflict with any of the rules and ordinances of the applicable local board of health, or with any municipal by-law or any provincial or federal statute or regulation.
5. No one shall injure, harass, threaten, annoy, or initiate any defamatory, threatening, hateful or discriminatory statement or action, or participate in any illegal activity or harmful conduct toward any Owner, Resident, Board member, Manager, employee of the Corporation or the Manager, or contractor retained by the Corporation. Harassment consists of any verbal or written statement, action, or behaviour which is intimidating, threatening, violent or which causes physical or psychological harm, fear, humiliation or embarrassment, objectively determined on a reasonable basis, including any statement, action or behaviour which a person knows or reasonably ought to know would be unwelcomed and offensive, including, without limitation, any verbal abuse, insulting comment, joke, gesture, conduct or touching or which would constitute workplace harassment or sexual harassment as set out in the Human Rights Act.

6. No one on the property shall act in a manner that is unmanageable, rude, disruptive, aggressive, abusive or anti-social in nature.
7. All Owners and Residents shall comply with the Workplace Violence, Harassment and Discrimination Policy, which may be amended or modified from time to time by the Board.
8. No one shall use, store, or permit the prolonged storage of garbage or degradable matter, an accumulation of excessive paper or any item in any unit or on the common elements which may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board, overload the structure or constitute a fire, health or safety hazard (the "Hazard"). If an Owner and/or Resident creates a Hazard and does not rectify and/or remedy the Hazard to a standard that is approved by the Board within a reasonable time, then the Corporation shall be permitted to enter the unit and/or exclusive use common elements appurtenant to the unit upon reasonable notice (or forthwith, in the case of an emergency) and rectify and/or remedy the Hazard. In such event, the Owner shall reimburse the Corporation in full for the costs of rectifying and/or remedying the Hazard including, but not limited to, any clean-up costs and legal costs and same shall be recovered by the Corporation in the same manner as common expenses, or in any other lawful manner.
9. No one shall interfere with, hinder or impede the Board or the Manager from carrying out the Corporation's duties and obligations under the Act, the Declaration or By-laws of the Corporation, or any agreement to which the Corporation is a party.

C. QUIET ENJOYMENT

1. No one shall create or permit the creation or continuation of any noise, odour or other nuisance which, in the opinion of the Board or the Manager, does or may disturb, annoy or interfere with the comfort or quiet enjoyment of the units or common elements by other Owners and/or Residents. No one shall obstruct or interfere with the rights of any Owner.

2. No noise (including music from an instrument or other source) or odour which is an annoyance, nuisance or disruption to other Owners or Residents shall be permitted to be transmitted from one unit to another or from one balcony, patio or terrace to another or to the common elements. If the Board determines that any noise or odour is being transmitted to another unit or balcony, terrace or patio or the common elements and that such noise or odour is an annoyance or a nuisance or disruptive, then the Owner and/or Resident of such unit shall at his/her expense take such steps as shall be necessary to abate such noise or odour to the satisfaction of the Board. If the Owner and/or Resident of such unit fails to abate the noise or odour, the Board may take such steps as it deems necessary to abate the noise or odour and the Owner shall be liable to the Corporation for all expenses incurred in abating the noise or odour (including legal fees).
3. No one shall permit smoke, including second-hand smoke, to interfere with Residents in other units or balconies, terraces or patios or in the common elements. If the Board determines, in its sole and exclusive discretion, that smoke is being transmitted to another unit or balcony, terrace or patio or the common elements, the Board may require the Owner of the unit from which the smoke emanates to take whatever steps are required to rectify the problem to the satisfaction of the Board. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, these steps could include the Owner installing, at his/her own cost, adequate ventilation in his/her unit or the common elements, if necessary, to stop the smoke penetration, in which case, the Owner shall be required to enter into an alteration agreement with the Corporation. If the Owner of such unit fails to abate the smoke, the Board may take such steps as it deems necessary to abate the smoke and the Owner shall be liable to the Corporation for all expenses thereby incurred in abating the smoke.
4. No solicitation, canvassing or delivery of flyers is allowed in the building except for the distribution of election materials by candidates and their authorized representatives for election to the House of Commons, legislative assembly or an office in municipal government or school board, or candidates running for election to the Corporation's Board (12:00 Noon to 9:00 pm). .
5. Any repairs and/or renovations to units or exclusive use common elements, which creates noise by hammering, drilling, etc., are permitted only during the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Monday to Saturday and noon to 6:00 p.m. on Sunday (excluding public holidays), except in the event of an emergency, in which case the Owner or Resident must notify the front desk as soon as practical in the circumstances.

D. UNITS AND COMMON ELEMENTS

1. Each unit shall be occupied for such purposes as provided in the Corporation's Declaration and these Rules and in accordance with all municipal by-laws.
2. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of any unit, the common elements or any other part of the Corporation's property. All federal and provincial laws and regulations, municipal by-laws and other ordinances, and all rules, regulations and codes of all quasi-governmental authorities having jurisdiction shall be strictly observed and complied with.
3. The filming of any movie for commercial purposes in any unit or on the common elements is prohibited except when authorized by written consent of the Board.
4. No one shall permit an infestation of pests, insects, vermin or rodents to exist at any time in his/her unit or adjacent common elements. Owners and/or Residents shall immediately report to the Manager all incidents of pests, insects, vermin or rodents and shall fully cooperate with the Manager to provide access to each unit for the purpose of inspecting the unit to ascertain the presence of any pests, insects or vermin and conducting a spraying program or any other program to eliminate any incident of pests, insects, vermin or rodents within the building. Residents shall prepare the unit in accordance with instructions provided by Management to facilitate the pest elimination in the unit.
5. No awnings, screens, enclosures or structures whatsoever shall be erected over the outside of any window of a residential unit, or on any balcony, terrace or patio without the prior written consent of the Board. All shades or other window coverings shall be white or off-white on the outside and all draperies shall be lined in white or off-white to present a uniform appearance to the exterior of the building.
6. No outside painting shall be done other than by the Corporation to the exterior of the building, railings, doors, windows, balconies or any other part of the property, unless otherwise permitted in the Declaration.
7. No sign, advertisement or notice shall be inscribed, painted, affixed or placed on any part of the inside or outside of the building or common elements whatsoever without the prior written consent of the Board, unless otherwise permitted in the Declaration.

8. No television antenna, aerial, satellite dish, tower or similar structure and similar appurtenances thereto shall be erected on or fastened to any unit or to any exclusive use common element appurtenant to a unit, or any other part of the common elements except when authorized by written consent of the Board.
9. No articles, fixtures or doormats shall be placed at individual doorways leading into any unit. No one shall obstruct or permit the obstruction of any entry, passageway, hallway or stairwell which is part of the common elements and any such entry, passageway, hallway or stairwell shall be used only as a means of ingress or egress to and from the building and the unit or some other part of the common elements. No one shall place or leave, or permit to be placed or left, anything in the corridors or in the stairwells.
10. No major electrical appliances, except a stove, refrigerator, washing machine, clothes dryer, dishwasher and other common household electrical appliances shall be installed or used in any residential unit without the prior written consent of the Board.
11. No garborators shall be installed in any unit.
12. No decorations, door knockers or doorbells are permitted to be affixed, placed or hanged on any unit door or door frame.
13. No less than 60% of the floor area of each residential unit shall be covered with broadloom or rugs at all times.
14. No one shall harm, mutilate, destroy, alter or litter any of the common elements of the Corporation, including, but not limited to, grass, trees, shrubs, hedges, flowers and landscaping on the property, nor plant new plants, shrubs or trees on the common elements, without the prior consent of the Board.
15. The Owner of a unit shall be responsible for any costs incurred to repair damage to the unit or the common elements that may have been caused by the Owner or the Resident of the Owner's unit, or any person, thing or animal for whom or for which the Owner and/or Resident is responsible, howsoever caused.
16. All persons shall wear proper attire (shoes, shirts and bathing suit covers) when using the common hallways, entrances or elevators.
17. Smoking is prohibited in or upon the common elements except in designated outdoor areas, as determined by the Board in its sole and absolute discretion. Without limiting the foregoing, smoking is not permitted in the parking garage.

18. No auction sales or events to which the general public is invited shall be allowed in any residential unit or on the common elements.
19. Firecrackers or other fireworks are not permitted in any unit or on the common elements.
20. No building, structure or tent shall be erected, placed, located, kept or maintained on the common elements, and no trailer, either with or without living, sleeping or eating accommodations, shall be placed, located, kept or maintained on the common elements.
21. Children are not permitted to play in the corridors, elevators or parking garage.
22. No mops, brooms, dusters, rugs or bedding shall be shaken or beaten from any window, door, balcony or patio.
23. No one shall install anything on the interior of the unit doors which may hamper the Corporation in the maintenance or repair of the common elements.
24. No one shall install anything on the walls of a unit that may encroach on the common elements, without the prior approval of the Board.
25. No one shall install any speakers or televisions directly on any wall within a unit without the prior consent of the Board, which may be granted by the Board, in its discretion, if it is satisfied that proper sound attenuation features are in place to prevent the transmittal of sound to other units.
26. All stored articles must be placed within individual lockers and no storage is permitted on top of lockers.
27. Locker units shall not be used as workshops or any purpose other than storage.
28. No storage lockers shall be used to store anything that is perishable, a hazardous material, or otherwise unsafe for storage. The term "hazardous material" shall mean any material defined by municipal, provincial or federal legislation as being hazardous, and any flammable or combustible material, including, but not limited to, gasoline, natural gas, propane or butane, or any material deemed by the Corporation, in its sole and absolute discretion, to be hazardous. Anyone storing a perishable or unsafe object, or an object that gives off an objectionable odour, must remove it from the storage locker upon receiving written notice from the Corporation.

29. No item shall be stored at a height which is higher than the sprinkler heads, to prevent damage to the sprinkler heads.
30. Anyone wishing to display the Canadian flag within the unit but visible from the outside, or on any exclusive use common elements appurtenant to the unit, may do so only in compliance with the Government of Canada's flag protocol, standards and rules, and with the prior written consent of the Board. Any flag not in compliance with the said protocol, standards and rules may be removed by Management. Except as aforesaid, Owners and Residents are not permitted to fly any flag on the property.
31. No one shall be entitled to post signs or notices anywhere on the property.
32. No one shall congregate in the lobby and/or adjacent common areas. No one shall use the lobby and/or common areas for any purpose which may interfere with the use and enjoyment of the property by Owners and/or Residents, including, but not limited to, canvassing, loitering, lounging or entertaining.
33. No one shall conduct business on the common elements, including the recreational facilities.

E. BALCONIES, TERRACES AND PATIOS

Also see UNITS and COMMON ELEMENTS

1. With respect to balconies, terraces and patios, no one shall:
 - (a) hang or dry clothes;
 - (b) install any satellite dish, antenna or other telecommunications equipment (affixed or otherwise), except when authorized by written consent of the Board;
 - (c) install any lights (including, but not limited to, seasonal decorations);
 - (d) install any hanging or rail mounted planters;
 - (e) store any bicycles, equipment, furniture, goods, materials or other items except for seasonal furniture;

2. Only seasonal furniture is allowed on balconies, terraces and patios. All such items shall be safely secured in order to prevent such items from being blown off the balcony, terrace or patio by high winds.
3. Nothing shall be placed on the outside of the windows sills or projections or upon any balcony, terrace or patio railing of the units and/or common elements by other Residents.
4. Balconies, terraces and patios shall not be used for barbecuing.
5. No mops, brooms, dusters, rugs or bedding shall be shaken from any balcony, terrace and patio.
6. No one shall do or permit anything to be done on a balcony, terrace or patio which does or may unreasonably annoy or interfere with the comfort and/or quiet enjoyment of the units and/or common elements by other Residents.
7. No portable or window air-conditioning shall be installed within any unit or common element.
8. No one shall install carpet, tile or other floor covering on any balcony, terrace or patio, unless the Owner has received the prior written consent of the Board.
9. Pets shall not be permitted to urinate or defecate on balconies and terraces.
10. Nothing shall be thrown from the balconies, including, without limitation, cigarette butts and ashes.
11. Anyone using water on their balcony or terrace shall ensure the water does not leak on to any other balcony, patio or terrace or other common element.

F. FRONT DESK

1. The front desk staff and any security staff employed by the Corporation will be instructed not to allow visitors, workmen or delivery personnel entry into the building unless such entry is authorized by the appropriate Owner and/or Resident of a residential unit and such authorization has been communicated to the front desk staff in the manner and format prescribed from time to time by the Board or Manager.

2. The front desk staff is instructed to have any cars which are improperly parked on the property (including Owners' and Residents' vehicles) to be tagged and/or towed from the property.
3. The front desk staff has the authority to act on behalf of the Board to enforce the Rules of the Corporation. The front desk staff and other security personnel have the right to restrict Owners and/or Residents, and their respective families, visitors, guests, invitees and licensees, from using the Recreational Facilities (as defined herein).
4. The front desk staff, Property Manager and superintendent are the only persons authorized to operate the desk controls. Under no circumstance is anyone else permitted to operate the controls.
5. The front desk staff is not permitted to allow entry to an Owner's residential unit. Only Management or the superintendent is allowed to authorize entry to the residential units for emergency situations.
6. The front desk staff keeps a visitors' register for visitors who have gained advance written permission from an Owner and/or Resident to enter a residential unit in the absence of an Owner and/or Resident. After proper identification has been shown to the front desk staff, the visitor will be allowed entrance to the building and residential unit.
7. The front desk staff and the Corporation are not responsible for any delivered goods or personal property that is left in the common areas or with the security staff.
8. The front desk staff will accept deliveries of parcels delivered to the front desk if a resident is not at home at the time of delivery, provided that such parcels must be of a size and weight that they can be easily carried by one person. All parcels delivered must be picked up by the Resident within two (2) days of being notified that the parcel has arrived.
9. The front desk telephone is to be used only by the staff of the Corporation.
10. The front desk staff must be notified immediately of any serious malfunctions in the building's common elements or any units so that proper entry and follow-up can be made in the logbook.

11. Residents may not use the front desk staff in an excessive manner. The Board will have the sole discretion to determine when a Resident is using the front desk staff excessively.

G. SECURITY

1. All suspicious persons in the building or on the property, or incidents of unauthorized entry to the building or other suspicious activity, or any emergency concerning any elevator or any situation otherwise affecting the safety and security of the building and its Residents, must be reported immediately to security.
2. No one shall change any lock or locks in a unit or the common elements or place any additional lock on any door in or to any residential unit or the common elements, without first obtaining the written approval of the Board and, if such approval is given, such lock must be compatible with the master lock system on the property and a copy of each new key must be delivered to the Property Manager.
3. Prior to leaving a residential unit for any extended period of time, each Owner and/or Resident shall arrange to stop delivery of newspapers and any other deliveries and inform the front desk staff that the Owner and/or Resident is on vacation or away from the residential unit for an extended period of time. Newspapers and other items delivered to a residential unit and not picked up after a reasonable time may be removed by the front desk staff.
4. If guests are given permission to occupy a residential unit during an Owner's and/or Resident's absence, the front desk staff shall be notified in writing of the name of such guests, dates of occupancy and their automobile licence numbers. No guests will be admitted to the property or permitted to occupy any residential unit unless such information is so provided.
5. The Board shall have the authority from time to time to restrict the number of building access cards/keys/fobs to residential unit Owners and/or Residents and set policies (including fees) regarding replacement of such access cards/keys/fobs from time to time. Each residential unit Owner and/or Resident shall abide by such policies, as set out by the Board or Manager from time to time.
6. Under no circumstances shall access cards/keys/fobs for the building or the common elements or amenities be made available to anyone other than an Owner or Resident. Building access doors shall not be left unlocked or wedged open for any reason.

7. Owners and Residents shall not permit entry to the building (by holding doors open) for anybody you do not personally recognize as a current resident or who cannot produce suitable identification. (Owners and Residents should be prepared to produce identification on request by security).
8. Owners and/or Residents shall promptly report to the front desk staff in the event that building access cards/keys/fobs are lost, misplaced or stolen.

H. SAFETY

1. No storage of any combustible or offensive goods, provisions or materials shall be kept in any unit or any exclusive use area appurtenant to the unit or the common elements.
2. No one shall overload existing electrical circuits in their units. No one shall alter in any way the amperage of the existing circuit breakers in any unit unless otherwise permitted in the Declaration. No one shall make any major plumbing, electrical, mechanical or structural installation or alteration without prior written consent of the Board unless otherwise permitted in the Declaration.
3. No propane tanks, gas washers, gas dryers or outdoor heaters shall be permitted in the units or the common elements.
4. Water shall not be left running unless in actual use.
5. The toilets, sinks, showers, bath tubs and other parts of the plumbing system shall not be used for purposes other than those for which they are constructed, and no sweepings, garbage, rubbish, rags, oils/cooking oils or other substances shall be thrown therein. The cost of repairing any damage (whether to the Owner's unit, the common elements or any other unit) resulting from misuse or from unusual or unreasonable use shall be borne by the Owner of the unit in which the plumbing system was misused or used unusually or unreasonably.
6. Nothing shall be thrown out of windows or doors of the building, or from the balconies or terraces.

7. Each Owner shall maintain and repair a smoke or similar fire detection device in his/her unit, and all batteries for such devices shall be changed on a regular basis, where applicable.
8. No one shall disconnect any fire alarm, smoke detector, annunciation speakers or automatic door closers in the building.
9. Washing machines, dryers and dishwashers shall not be run while no one is in the unit.
10. Lint traps in dryers must be cleaned after every use.
11. All washing machines must be connected to steel braid hoses.
12. Residents leaving the unit unoccupied for a period of more than seventy-two (72) hours shall turn off the water supply to the unit, using the shut-off valves located within the unit.

I. ELEVATORS, MOVING AND DELIVERIES

1. All Owners and/or Residents shall enter into the Corporation's form of Elevator Reservation Agreement prior to moving furniture, equipment and/or any other items into or out of the building or from floor to floor.
2. Furniture, equipment, renovation materials and any other freight shall be moved into or out of the building and from floor to floor only by the elevator designated for such purpose (the "service elevator") by the Board.
3. The service elevator shall be used for the delivery of any goods, equipment, renovation materials or home furnishings where pads to protect the elevators should be installed if required by the front desk staff in his/her/their sole and absolute discretion. The time and date for moving or delivery shall be fixed in advance by arrangement and reservation with the front desk. The reservation shall be for a period not exceeding four (4) hours unless authorized by the front desk. Elevator reservations are accepted on a "first come, first served" basis. An elevator reservation agreement shall be signed when reserving the service elevator.
4. Except with prior written authorization of the front desk staff, moving and deliveries shall be permitted only between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., Monday to Sunday, but shall not take place on public holidays.

5. A security/damage deposit in such amounts as determined by the Board from time to time, payable to the Corporation by money order or certified cheque shall be given to the front desk when making the reservation and signing the Elevator Reservation Agreement.
6. It shall be the responsibility of the Owner and/or Resident reserving the service elevator to notify the front desk or superintendent and to request an inspection of the service elevator and adjacent common elements immediately prior to using the elevator. Upon completion of moving into or out of the building or the delivery, the Owner and/or Resident reserving the service elevator shall forthwith request an immediate re-inspection of the service elevator and adjacent common elements. Any damage noted during the re-inspection and not noted on the initial inspection shall be deemed to be the responsibility of the Owner and/or Resident who reserved the service elevator and the Owner of the residential unit in which the Resident resides and may be recovered by the Corporation from the Owner of the unit in the same manner as common expenses. The cost of repairs, which shall include the cost of any extra cleaning, shall be assessed by the Manager as soon as possible following the moving or damage and the parties responsible shall be advised.
7. Owners and/or Residents shall be liable for the full cost of repairs to any damage to the service elevators and any part of the common elements caused by the moving of furniture or equipment into or out of the unit or the delivery of goods, equipment and home furnishings or equipment and/or renovation materials into or out of the unit. The Corporation shall have the right to withhold all or part of the security/damage deposit as it deems necessary for payment of any damages sustained. If the cost of repairs is less than the amount of the security/damage deposit, the balance shall be returned to the Owner and/or Resident who paid the deposit. If the cost of repairs exceeds the amount of the security deposit, the full cost of repairs less the amount of security/damage deposit shall be promptly paid upon receipt of an invoice therefor, failing which, the same may be recovered by the Corporation from the Owner of the unit in the same manner as common expenses.
8. During the term of the reservation and while any exterior doors are in an open condition, the Owner and/or Resident reserving the service elevator shall take reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized entry into the building.
9. Corridors and elevator lobbies shall not be obstructed prior to, during or after the term of the reservation. All furniture and boxes shall be taken directly from the service elevator to the unit or from the unit to the service elevator. Nothing shall be placed or left in the hallway.

10. Upon moving from a unit, the Owner and/or Resident vacating the unit shall surrender all common element access cards/keys/fobs and any garage access devices in his possession to the Manager. The Corporation shall have the right to withhold any security deposit in its possession until same have been surrendered.
11. New Owners, Residents or tenants of a residential unit shall register with the property Manager prior to the move in date at which time arrangements will be made for delivery of the common element access cards/keys/fobs and any garage access devices.

J. RENOVATIONS

1. No one shall carry out any change, addition, alteration or improvement (i.e. renovation) to the common elements or any structural change in a unit, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to any boundary wall, load bearing wall, floor, door, window, toilet, bathtub, washbasin, sink, heating, air-conditioning, plumbing, electrical, mechanical, structural or telecommunication installations, except in compliance with the declaration and unless the Owner has received the prior written consent of the Board and entered into an Renovations/Alteration Agreement, as provided by the Board from time to time.
2. All plumbing and electrical work in a unit must be carried out by a licensed tradesperson.

K. OWNER'S CONTRACTORS, TRADE OR SERVICE PERSONNEL

1. No contractor, trade or service personnel shall enter the property to perform any work or service in or about any unit (including exclusive use common elements) that may or will affect the common elements in any way unless such persons are:
 - (a) employed directly by the Corporation; or
 - (b) employed by an Owner in circumstances where the intended performance of work and/or services has first been approved, in writing, by the Corporation and the Owner and the Corporation have entered into an Renovations/Alteration Agreement.

L. WASTE MANAGEMENT

1. Loose garbage shall not be deposited in the garbage/recycling room(s). All garbage must be properly bound, packaged or bagged to reduce or eliminate mess and odours and deposited in the garbage chute. No garbage is to be left on the floor of the garbage rooms.
2. Small quantities of recyclables, including newspapers, magazines and/or plastic/glass bottles should be cleaned, if necessary, and deposited into the garbage chute as indicated on the sorter and/or the recycling garbage bins, as designated by the Board. Large quantities of recyclables shall not be thrown down the chute, but shall be securely bound and deposited in the designated recycling area.
3. Unless otherwise stated herein, cartons and large objects which might block the garbage chute shall be stored in such area, as designated by the Board from time to time. Such items shall not be left outside the unit or on any exclusive use common elements.
4. Appliances, furniture, rugs or carpeting and all renovation or construction debris and materials shall not be placed down the garbage chute and/or in the designated large object area, if applicable. All Owners must reserve the elevator and remove these items from the property at their own expense. Renovation and construction debris must be hauled away from the property on a daily basis by the Owner or the Owner's contractor.
5. No paint, chemicals, burning cigarettes, cigars, ashes or other potential fire hazards shall be thrown down the garbage chute.
6. No garbage shall be placed in the garbage chute between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

M. TENANCIES

1. No unit shall be occupied under a lease unless, within 30 days of entering into a lease, the Owner shall have delivered to the Corporation a completed Owner/Tenant Information Form (available at the management office) duly executed by the owner and the tenant as required and a copy of the lease or a summary of it. The foregoing documentation shall be supplied promptly and without charge to the Corporation.

2. In the event that the Owner of a unit fails to provide the foregoing documentation prior to the commencement date of the tenancy, and fails to comply with Section 83 of the Act, any person or persons intending to reside in or occupy the Owner's unit shall be deemed a trespasser by the Corporation until and unless such person or persons and the Owner comply with the Rules and the Act.
3. Within seven (7) days of ceasing to rent a unit (or within seven (7) days of being advised that the tenant has vacated or abandoned the unit, as the case may be), the Owner shall notify the Corporation in writing that the unit is no longer rented.
4. No Owner of a unit shall allow a tenant to sublet the unit to another tenant.
5. During the period of occupancy of a residential unit by a tenant, the Owner shall have no right of use of any part of the common elements (including the Recreational Facilities and any amenities).
6. The Owner shall supply to Management, the Owner's current address and telephone number during the period of occupancy by a tenant.
7. All Owners shall be responsible for any damage or additional maintenance to the common elements caused by their tenants and all costs of enforcing the Declaration, By-laws, Rules and the Act against their tenants, and any costs incurred to defend unsuccessful litigation commenced by a tenant against the Corporation, and will be assessed and charged therefor in the same manner as common expenses.
8. Upon entering into a lease of a unit, the Owner shall provide the tenant with a copy of the Corporation's Declaration, By-laws and Rules.
9. Where lease arrangements or rights to occupy are with a corporation, partnership or other business entity, as tenant or occupant, the Residents are to be considered along with the corporate tenant for purposes of these Rules, and a change in the Residents residing in the unit shall be treated as a tenant or occupant taking possession of the unit pursuant to a new lease or right to occupy that must be in compliance with these Rules.

N. PETS/ANIMALS

1. No animal, livestock, reptile or other than a cat, dog, canary, budgie, or tropical fish shall be kept or allowed on the common elements or in any units.
2. No animal, which is deemed by the Board, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, to be a nuisance or a danger to the Owners and Residents shall be kept in any unit or permitted on the common elements. Any animal which is deemed by the Board to be a nuisance or a danger shall, within two weeks of receipt of written notice from the Board or the Property Manager, be permanently removed from the property.
3. No more than two (2) pets shall be permitted to reside within any unit. A pet registration form must be completed and returned to the office at the time of occupancy of the unit.
4. Unless within the confines of a residential unit, all dogs and cats shall be kept or held in hand by means of a short lead, leash or chain or carried or otherwise contained and this provision shall be applicable to the whole of the common elements whether interior or exterior.
5. No breeding of animals is permitted within any unit or the common elements. No pet sitting or pet boarding is permitted in any unit.
6. No exotic animals, including, but not limited to, snakes, rodents, monkeys or other exotic pets, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion, shall be permitted within any unit.
7. Every dog and cat must wear a collar with an identification of its owner when allowed on common elements.
8. No pet will be permitted to run loose upon the common elements.
9. Any defecation on the common elements by a pet and any urine on the interior common elements must be cleaned up immediately by the pet owner. Should a pet owner fail to clean up after his pet, the Board may declare such pet a nuisance animal.
10. Pets are not permitted to urinate or defecate on balconies, terraces or interior common elements. Pets shall not be left unattended on any balcony, patio or terrace.

11. No pet shall be permitted to damage the common elements or cause any damage to the common elements or mutilate or destroy any of the landscaping, including grass, trees, shrubs, hedges or flowers. Any costs to remedy any damage to the common elements caused by a pet, including any damage caused by cleaning, chemicals or other such materials used in the attempt to remedy damage caused by a pet, will be the responsibility of the Owner in whose unit the pet resides or where the pet is visiting, and such costs shall be collectable in the same manner as common expenses.
12. No one shall permit any animal to bark, howl or cause a noise or disturbance which disturbs the comfort or quiet enjoyment of the property by other Residents.
13. Visitors are not permitted to bring pets on to the property. Dog walkers are not permitted to bring any dogs on the Property that do not reside on the Property.
14. All complaints regarding pets/animals must be submitted to the Property Manager in writing and be signed. It should include details of the nature of the complaint and sufficient information to identify the violator of these Rules, if possible.
15. Each pet owner is responsible for the actions and behavior of his or her pet. The Corporation is not responsible for any damage or injury caused by any pet or any claim related thereto.
16. No feeding of wild birds or wild or feral animals is permitted anywhere on the property.

O. PARKING

1. For the purpose of these rules, the term "motor vehicle" shall be restricted to a licensed and insured vehicle and restricted to a private passenger automobile, station wagon, minivan or compact van, sport utility vehicle, truck not exceeding 1.9 metres in height, or motorcycle as customarily understood and shall exclude any type of commercial vehicle, truck, trailer or recreational vehicle, motorhome, boat and/or snowmobile (and such other vehicles as the Board may wish to exclude from the property from time to time). No motor vehicle parked in or upon the parking units and/or visitor parking units shall exceed a height of 1.9 metres.

9. Parked motor vehicles must not encroach on driveways or any other parking units.
10. Drivers shall turn on the headlights when entering or driving within the parking garage.

11. In the event of the mechanical breakdown of a motor vehicle, the owner of such vehicle shall push the vehicle out of any right-of-way and notify the front desk of the breakdown and remove the motor vehicle as soon as a tow truck can be obtained.
12. No repairs, other than minor emergency repairs, shall be made to any motor vehicle that is parked or left standing in any parking unit or visitor parking unit or upon the common elements.
13. No car washing shall be permitted.
14. No one shall plug in or cause to be plugged into any electrical outlet, any electrical scooter, electrical vehicle or any in-car or block heater without the consent of the Board.
15. No Owner shall sell or lease his/her parking unit except in compliance with the Act, the Declaration and the Rules.
16. No motor vehicles shall be driven on any part of the common elements at a speed in excess of the posted speed.
17. No one shall place, leave, park or permit to be placed, left or parked in or upon the common elements or a parking unit or visitor parking unit any motor vehicle that does not have current licence plates or any motor vehicle which, in the opinion of the Board or the Manager, may pose a security or safety risk, either caused by its length of unattended stay, its physical condition or its potential damage to the property.
18. No one shall park more than one (1) vehicle in any single parking unit (other than a motor cycle otherwise permitted to be parked in the parking unit)
19. Any motor vehicle and/or any other vehicle, equipment or machinery which is improperly parked and/or in breach of these Rules shall be tagged and/or towed from the property at the sole cost and expense of the owner of the vehicle, and the Corporation, its directors, officers, employees, agents and/or Management shall not be liable for any damages, costs or expenses caused to the Owner or Resident or his/her motor vehicle.
20. Owners and Residents are not permitted to park in any visitor parking units.
21. All parking units and visitor parking units shall be subject to a right of access, over, along and upon the parking units at all times when necessary in favour of the Corporation, its servants, agents, and employees for the purposes of ingress and egress from mechanical, electrical and service areas and equipment and for garage sweeping and repairs.

P. BICYCLE STORAGE

1. No servicing or repairs shall be made to any bicycle on the common elements.
2. Bicycles must not be stored or parked on any part of the common elements not designated for bicycle storage including, but not limited to, visitor parking units and exclusive use common elements (i.e. balconies, terraces or patios).
3. Any bicycles chained to posts, fences or rails located on the common elements, will be forcibly removed and impounded at the Owner's and/or Resident's expense.

9. The guest suite shall not be occupied prior to 3:00 p.m. on the reserved day and shall be vacated on the scheduled final day of use by no later than 11:00 a.m., unless otherwise approved by the Board.
10. The Resident reserving the guest suite shall ensure that his/her guest(s) are familiar with the rules of the Corporation and such Resident (together with the Owner of the unit in which the Resident resides) shall be responsible for the conduct of the guests using the guest suite.
11. At the commencement of their guests' stay, Residents should immediately notify the front desk of any damage or missing items in the guest suite, failing which the guest suite shall be deemed to be without damage. The front desk staff shall inspect the guest suite at the end of each guests' stay to determine whether any damage has been caused thereto or any items are missing.
12. The Resident who booked the guest suite and the Owner of the unit in which the Resident resides shall be responsible for any and all costs, damages, losses and/or liabilities caused by the Resident's guests or in any way related to the guests' use of the guest suite and the costs for same shall be added to the common expenses payable for the Owner's unit.
13. In the event that an occupant of the guest suite fails or refuses to vacate the guest suite on the scheduled final day or if damage has been caused to the guest suite rendering the guest suite unusable for the next guest, all costs and expenses associated with repairing the guest suite and relocating any other guests to alternative accommodations shall be payable by the Owner of the unit in which the Resident who booked the guest suite resides and shall be added to the common expenses payable for the Owner's unit.
14. Users of the guest suite must provide suitable sleeping facilities for infants.

R. RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

1. Non-Resident Owners are prohibited from using the Recreational Facilities. The Recreational Facilities are for the sole use and enjoyment of the Residents who reside in the Corporation. Owners who do not reside in the Corporation and who have leased their units shall be deemed and considered to be non-residents.
2. The Recreational Facilities are open for use during the hours stated in these Rules, or such other hours determined by the Board from time to time, except when closed for the purpose of maintenance and repair.
3. The use of Recreational Facilities or any portion thereof may be restricted during organized activities of the Corporation.
4. Any member of the Board, the Property Manager, front desk, security or staff of the Corporation may request proof of identity from individuals using Recreational Facilities.
5. Smoking is prohibited in or on all of the Recreational Facilities except in designated outside smoking areas, as determined by the Board in its sole and absolute discretion from time to time.
6. All Recreational Facilities are used at the users' risk. The Corporation and its officers and directors, Property Management and employees of the Corporation are not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged personal property or for any injury, illness, accident or death, howsoever caused.
7. Owners and Residents are fully liable for any damages caused in or to the Recreational Facilities by the Owner or the Resident of the Owner's unit or the Resident's guests. All costs incurred by the Corporation may be recovered from either the individual responsible or from the Owner of the unit in which the Resident resides, in which case said costs are recoverable in the same manner as common expenses.
8. Residents shall ensure that guests or visitors to their unit obey the Rules of the Corporation.
9. No Owner and/or Resident or their guests shall provide services for remuneration to others in the Recreational Facilities. Only those services/classes/events that are approved by the Board, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall be permitted in the Recreational Facilities.

17. All other areas of the property are off-limits to party guests except for the Multi-Purpose Room. No food or drink is allowed beyond the Multi-Purpose Room doors.
18. Door exits must be kept free from obstructions at all times.
19. Any Resident using the Multi-Purpose Room shall comply with all provisions of the application form and/or Multi-Purpose Room Agreement filed with the Manager and all such provisions are and shall be incorporated into these Rules.
20. Residents are reminded that they are responsible for ensuring that their families, guests and visitors are familiar with these Rules. Owners are responsible for the non-compliance by a Resident of the Owner's unit (and his/her family members, guests, visitors and invitees) of these Rules relating to the Multi-Purpose Room.
21. The Resident booking the Multi-Purpose Room will be responsible for his/her guests' behaviour. If in the opinion of the Manager, front desk staff or the representative on duty, the Resident cannot or will not control the behaviour of his/her guests and the situation in the opinion of the Manager, front desk staff or representative on duty has deteriorated to an unsatisfactory level, the Manager, front desk staff or its representative on duty will have full authority to terminate the party immediately and ask all persons to leave the property; and/or the police may be called to assist the Manager, front desk staff or representative in controlling the situation and/or the security deposit may be forfeited as partial compensation. It will be at the sole discretion of the Board as to whether the security deposit will be withheld and as to whether the Resident will be permitted to use the Multi-Purpose Room for any further occasion.

22. Any damage to furnishings and/or finish of the Multi-Purpose Room and/or theft or loss of and/or damage to the Corporation's property is the responsibility of the Resident who booked the Multi-Purpose Room and the Owner of the unit in which the Resident resides, and the cost of cleaning, replacement, repairs or refinishing as determined by the Corporation or the Property Manager, in their discretion, are the responsibility of the Resident who booked the Multi-Purpose Room, as well as the Owner of the unit in which the Resident resides, and may be recovered in the same manner as common expenses. The Corporation and its officers and directors, Management and employees of the Corporation are not responsible for loss or damage to any personal property or for personal injury to Residents or guests, however caused.
23. Residents will be responsible for cleaning the Multi-Purpose Room after use, and will adhere to the Rules which are shown on the application form.
24. The Corporation reserves the right to permit exclusive use of the Multi-Purpose Room without an agreement, deposit, or fees for activities or events of a social or recreational nature operated by the groups or clubs for the benefit of the residents of the condominium.
